THE EDITOR SPEAKS . . .

THANK YOU Kentucky District for your offerings and prayers during and after my recent illness. The telephone calls I received while in the hospital and those my family received asking about my condition and expressing concern and support were very much appreciated by all of us. Also, the wonderful response for our financial need was such a blessing. Words are not even able to convey the feelings of gratitude in our hearts. We love the Kentucky District and we count you all as our friends.

We would also like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" for your patience while we have been trying to work out the obstacles we have encountered concerning the KENTUCKY DISTRICT NEWS. Obtaining a mailing permit has been a real hassle. Different postal regulations, a raise in postal rates, and a limited income have added to our frustrations. We apologise to those of you who did not receive your church copies because they did not survive the mailing and were lost enroute. We are working on this problem.

We are trusting that the last quarter of this year will show an improvement. We have always felt that our district paper mirrors our district. We want the image that is portrayed to be the best possible.

God bless you,
BROTHER G. LARRY CUMMINS, EDITOR

Walking REVIVAL!

Newspapermen went down from London to report at first-hand the marvelous happenings of the great Welsh Revival at the turn of the century. On their arrival in Wales one of them asked a policeman where the Welsh Revival was. Drawing himself to his full height he laid his hand over his heart and proudly proclaimed, "Gentlemen, the Welsh Revival is inside this uniform!" He had caught the holy fire, have you?

Play Rock Backward, You Get Satan's Word

—by TONY LANG

EDITOR'S NOTE: We found this article in the CINCINNATI ENQUIRER the week after we returned home from youth camp. We thought that others might also be interested in reading it. It seems that we United Pentecostals are not the only ones concerned about what our young people are listening to these days.

For years I have strained to hear if any message whatsoever could be detected in hard rock songs. Now I'm told not only are there words hidden behind the racket, but satanic messages besides.

I agree some rock groups generate a blare that can only be described as hellish, but Satanic? That's a heavy-duty charge.

The California legislature held hearings in May and has scheduled more for the fall on whether "backward masking" of satanic messages on rock records may be subliminally brainwashing an unsuspecting public.

Tomorrow, Pastor Ed Holland of the Toledo Baptist Temple is scheduled to appear at 6:30 p.m. at Deer Park Baptist Church to deliver his multi-media testimony—"Satan's Deceit Through Rock and Roll Music."

THE REV. Holland has stockpiled a research library of 200-some rock albums. After playing most of them backward, he is utterly convinced many carry insidious hidden messages. Can you imagine spending hours monitoring hard rock records played backward, when so many are insufferable even when played forward? This man deserves some kind of medal.

California Assemblyman Phil Wyman believes he heard on the albums of such groups as Styx and Led Zeppelin backward-masked messages such as "O Satan, move in our voices" and "Here's to my sweet Satan."

Pastor Holland is more all-inclusive. Besides outright satanism, he has detected Satan's deceit in recorded messages favoring drugs, sado-masochistic perversion and the occult.

On Queen's "Another Bites The Dust," he heard the reverse-recorded message "It's fun to smoke marijuana."

As a rock music researcher, Holland insists he counts only those reverse messages he has heard with unmistakable clarity. As a minister, he objects to the whole rock and roll lifestyle.

"This is not a witchhunt or a crossburning," he said. "I'm not telling people to go out and picket their local record stores. I ask people to think: Is this what they want to expose their minds to? This is one of the biggest plagues in America: People are led around like a bunch of sheep."

He does not believe rock messages, either covert or overt, will turn listeners into brainwashed zombies overnight.

"I believe it's a gradual effect," he said. "As a Milwaukee psychologist put it, the conscious will not do what the unconscious message is, until after a gradual process, the unconscious changes the conscious. These messages do affect us."

HOLLAND TAKES as unassailable fact that the North Koreans brainwashed with visual subliminal messages.

It's hardly necessary to hunt for aural subliminal messages in albums by rock groups such as Black Sabbath. Obvious satanists, they openly wallow in the weird. Satan worshippers are big on symbols directly opposite to Christian symbols—goats instead of lambs, upside-down crosses. Holland has found rock-record jacket covers crawling with Satanic symbols.

"Speaking as a minister now and not as a researcher," he said, "I believe the mastermind behind it all is Satan."

It rankles him how 12- and 13-year-olds flock to buy punk rockers such as Bow Wow Wow and Ozzie Osbourne. He challenged me to check for myself at Cincinnati stores. At both Record Theater and Swallows, I was told Bow Wow Wow was a real dog, hardly sold at all, but Ozzie was a redhot seller.

Holland offers record-buyers this rule of thumb: Any music that advocates an anti-Christian lifestyle is wrong.

"That wipes out 90% of rock and roll music right away," he said. He even cited studies warning the rock beat is hazardous to your health.

You betcha. In my book, anything loud is the enemy—whether it's Black Sabbath, raucous frat parties or Howard Cosell.

Kentucky District
United Pentecostal Church

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

My family and I would like to express our love to you and our appreciation for the many years of wonderful fellowship you have given us.

It seems as though we and the Kentucky District grew up together. My wife was a matron at the first youth camp at Levi Jackson State Park in 1962. In 1982, three of my almost grown sons were in the camp meeting at Summersville.

Kentucky has been good to us. In leaving, it feels as though we are leaving behind part of our family. We treasure your friendship and desire your prayers for God's blessing in the field to which he has called us.

Prior to our coming to Newport, Rhode Island, there was only one church in a state with a population of almost one million. I know that Kentucky has many unevangelized areas. Someone wanted to know why we couldn't simply go somewhere else in Kentucky and continue to work for God. I don't know the answer to that. I do know God has definitely called us to this needy area and has already begun to work in a marvelous way.

We are holding services in our living room now and are looking for a place to have public services. We are also teaching Home Bible Studies. There is a harvest of souls here. Please pray that we will be able to effectively use and work with the many opportunities the Lord is giving us.

We love the Kentucky District, and you will always have a special place in our hearts. Write to us, pray for us, and come to visit us. This place is one of the best for a vacation in the whole United States. We are only a short drive from Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the history of our nation began.

Our prayers are with you and I ask that you pray for us. Continue to lift up the name of Jesus and a holiness standard until He comes.

JUNIOR CAMP -- 1982

'Seaman Crook' puts up a fight and is injured.

Part of the almost 200 campers

"A SKIT"

"Captain Courage" finally captures "Seaman Crook" on the last day of camp.

The camp nurses, Sister Rucker and Sister Hoagland work hard to save him.

Four able-bodied "stretcher-bearers" carry him to the tabernacle for prayer. He gets well, prays through, and turns into Brother Twyman, his "crooked" days behind him.

Junior Camp was a real blessing this year to everyone who attended, student and adult alike. The campground was a natural for the theme "Bon Voyage". Brother Paul Perry, camp principal, began collecting objects from the time he learned the theme, and ideas blossomed under his creative touch. From the "Boarding Dock" to "Pirate's Cove", where eight "worthy shipmates" searched each day for buried treasure, to the teaching "piers" to the inside of the "Old Ship of Zion" each night, everyone aboard had a good time. But, best of all, spiritual truths and experiences found their way into the "good ground" of nearly 200 children's hearts. Approximately 44 received the Holy Ghost this year.

One exciting event the children loved was the appearing of the notorious "Seaman Crook" alias Brother Twyman. The battles between him and "Captain Courage", Brother Paul Perry, were exciting. They were apt to take place ANYTIME. Everyone was pressed into sentry duty. WATCH! One never knows when the enemy will appear!

The "Stowaway" turned out to be the least suspected of all. The cook in the "galley" - Brother Howard Moran.

The auction of "Naval Surpluses" on Thursday (proceeds went to the Ladies Auxiliary) was fun too. Over $200.00 was raised.

Brother Charles Clanton, our Sunday School Director, and Brother Paul Perry are to be commended for their good work in planning and organizing the camp. To everyone who had a part "Thank You". Our children deserve the best we can give them.

But My Husband Isn't Saved

By: Yvonne Bevis

How can I live for God? I can't come to prayer meeting. He won't let me. I can't teach my children to live for God. He contradicts everything I say. I can't live holy because he wants me to look and act like everyone else. I have so many problems! Things are so bad I just can't do it any longer. You see — my husband isn't saved.

Let's meet Abijah, a king's wife. Her son, Hezekiah, grew up to be one of the best kings of Judah. He cleaned the Temple, restored the priests, and revived the Passover, and brought the nation back to God. He 'Clave' unto the Lord and departed not from following Him. Who taught him to love God? MOTHER most likely.

But that was easy for Abijah. She had no problems. As a king's wife she could do as she wished and have anything she wanted.

No, you see, her husband wasn't saved. Meet Ahaz:

1. He made images to Baal.
2. He burned his children to idols.
3. He sacrificed in high places and groves.
4. He gave the Temple vessels to an enemy king as a bribe.
5. He sacrificed to the god of Damascus.
6. He cut up the Temple vessels and closed the doors.
7. He made altars to idols in every corner of the land.
8. He made high places in every city.

"God brought Judah low because of Ahaz." II Chron. 28:19 Four times nations carried captives from Judah.

Where was Abijah? She was right in the target's bullseye. Being the king's wife, she was prime choice for captivity. She was closest to the wicked king who strengthened idolatry. She was directly under his authority. Her children were in danger of being sacrificed to idols. Her husband wasn't saved! Yet she taught her son enough to stand alone and bring the nation back to God. He 'Clave' unto the Lord. He 'hung on tight.'

What about me? My husband isn't saved. I can't. Oh yes I can! I can stand strong! I can teach my children. I can 'hold on tight'. If Abijah could, I CAN TOO!

A good many years ago Jonathan Swift advised, "A man should never be ashamed to own he has been wrong, which is but saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday."

T.V. will help you grow as a christian
T.V. will strengthen your church
T.V. will reach people for Christ.

T.V. will help you see the need for others
T.V. will glorify Christ and His church
By the way, T.V. stands for "TEAM VISITATION"

SUNDAY SCHOOL

"We are important"!

There were two rowdy teenage boys who lived in Dallas, Texas. They were assigned to a Sunday School teacher for visitation. One teacher contacted her boy weekly for over a year with negative results. One day that boy became interested in Christ and today he is an Evangelism Secretary in the State of Florida. The other teacher after a few efforts gave up and quit, saying, "He's not interested anyway and what is the difference?" That boy grew up to be Lee Harvey Oswald, the one who assassinated the President of the United States. Visitation and love are important.

SCRIPTURE FOR THE MONTH

"And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is in the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose."
